Prelude

Gathering

Entering of the Family

Greeting

Hymn

“I Would be True”

I would be true, for there are those who trust me;

I would be pure, for there are those who care;

I would be strong, for there is much to suffer;

I would be brave, for there is much to dare,

I would be brave, for there is much to dare.

I would be friend of all, the foe, the friendless;

I would be giving, and forget the gift;

I would be humble, for I know my weakness;

I would look up, and laugh and love and lift;

I would look up, and laugh and love and lift.

Amen.

Postlude

“Happiness is not in our circumstance but in ourselves.
It is not something we see, like a rainbow, or feel, like the heat of a fire. Happiness is something we are.”

John B. Sheerin

“I wanted you to see what real courage is... It's when you know you're licked before you begin but you begin anyway and you see it through no matter what.”

Harper Lee, To Kill a Mockingbird

“Through humor, you can soften some of the worst blows that life delivers. And once you find laughter, no matter how painful your situation might be, you can survive it.”

Bill Cosby

“I have fought the good fight. I have finished the race.
I have kept the faith.”

2 Timothy 4:7
